T E A M E N U

Brockhole English Breakfast

Piquant and rich in character with an elegant flowery bouquet that mirrors Brockhole estate in all its beauty. A solid African leaf with assam golden tips. Bold and strong.

Imperial Earl Grey

Regal and refined. Oolong and Italian bergamot makes this quintessentially British blend light and floral.

Garden of Eden

Garden Tea Room must have. Black and green tea with butterflies and peach makes this blend gentle and floral.

Jewel of Africa

A true gem. This South-African blend of rooibos, sandalwood, red currants and flowers gives this blend a bright orange, woody note.

Cleanse

Inspired by a Moroccan bath house, this invigorating and clean blend of ginger, black pepper, cardamom and dates makes this combination a yogi's favourite.

British Mint & Caramel

Light and refreshing. A peppermint and spearmint tea with a touch of Caramel flavouring

Adam's Peak Estate Ceylon

Fully aromatic with a medium body. The Adam Peak tea estate is situated at approximately 2,200 metres above sea level in the district of Nuwara Eliya, Sri Lanka.

Green Flamingo

Gunpowder green tea Sprinkled with red cornflowers, this blend is both fruity and floral with a sensual, silky quality. Sip this green tea as it softly unfolds layers of sweet lychee, rose and honey to create a passionate samba of flavours.

White Elixir

An edible beauty. White tea, Jasmine and Spirulina combine to make this tea delicate and sweet.
